PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dedicated storyteller and writer with a fervent passion for crafting captivating narratives. Boasting two published books, I have relentlessly honed my storytelling prowess. Spanning fiction and professional articles, my journey has led me to merge a deep understanding of narrative structures with an insatiable love for the gaming world. With meticulous attention to detail and unwavering ambition, I aim to create worlds and characters that offer enriching and unforgettable player experiences. Eager to join a forward-thinking gaming company, I aspire to become an integral talent in shaping mesmerizing narratives that define the industry's future.

EXPERIENCE

FREELANCE – Lincolnshire, UK
Writer, April 2022 – Present

Delved into the realm of fictional writing in early 2022, embarking on a creative journey that honed my skills while fueling my passion for storytelling.

- Published "The Plot" in May 2022 and followed with "The Cosmic Carnival of Curiosities" in March 2023, both earning praise for their immersive narratives.
- Orchestrated the creation of physical, eBook, and Audiobook formats, skillfully collaborating with distributors (Audible, Barnes & Noble, Amazon, Spotify) to maximize accessibility.
- Channeling each project, I continuously refine the art of crafting rich stories accompanied by relatable and enthralling characters.
- Collaborated with an artist to forge book covers that vividly encapsulate the story's essence, tone, and genre.
- Building upon my second release, I am actively shaping another solo endeavor while eagerly anticipating the opportunity to contribute my adept storytelling skills to a dynamic game development team.

LIGHTING STYLES LTD – Rutland, UK
Web Content Writer, July 2019 – April 2022

Employed a keen eye for detail to conjure descriptive product narratives and articles, fostering a deep connection between potential customers and diverse lighting products.

- Integrated SEO tactics into every piece, amplifying visibility on search engines while weaving narratives that enchant readers.
- Translated intricate technical information into easily digestible content, bridging the gap for non-technical consumers and enhancing their understanding.
- Showcased my versatility by adeptly utilising Photoshop to enhance product visuals, rendering them captivating and inviting for the website's audience.
- As the sole orchestrator of engaging competitions, I substantially heightened the company's exposure, complemented by prompt and efficient communication with competition winners.
